

The University of Iowa College of Nursing Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP)
Student Outcomes. Graduates of the DNP programs will be able to:

- I. Utilize scientific underpinnings for nursing practice.
- II. Demonstrate organizational and systems leadership.
- III. Evaluate clinical scholarship and analytical methods for evidence-based practice.
- IV. Evaluate information systems and patient care technology for the improvement and transformation of health care.
- V. Influence health care policy for advocacy in health care
- VI. Collaborate inter-professionally to improve patient and population health outcomes.
- VII. Design clinical prevention and population health interventions.
- VIII. Demonstrate expertise in advanced nursing practice.