

After May 2019 Graduation:

“Continue serving the UI and Iowa City area as a Family Nurse Practitioner with an emphasis in care for vulnerable populations including LGBTQ individuals and Hispanic, migrant farmworkers.”

Congratulations!

James R. McKinney,

BSN, RN., FNP-DNP

2019 College of Nursing

Dean’s Achievement Recipient

Hometown: Eldridge, Ia.; Bilingual in English and Spanish

Adjunct Clinical Faculty: (NURS: 3615) Adult Medical/Surgical Nursing Practicum

Staff Nurse: Cardiovascular, Intensive Care Unit at UIHC

Former Healthcare Manager at Proteus Inc.: Planned, coordinated, and led Migrant Health clinics

Undergraduate Research Assistant: Studied Heat Stress in Hispanic Farmworkers

College Activities: Diversity-Equity-Inclusion Committee; Association of Graduate Nursing Students; Multicultural Nursing Association

Sigma Theta Tau, Gamma Chapter

Professional Presentations:

-- The Implementation of a LGBTQ Health Education Intervention

-- The Development of Health Education Material for Hispanic Migrant Farmworkers

Awards: 2016 UI Graduate College Diversity Scholarship Recipient; 2015 UIHC DAISY Award nominee

2019

